And be it enacted, That should there exist any supernumerary troops in any district, they shall be under the command of the lieutenant colonel of such district, until the number of such supernumerary troops shall increase to entitle them to be officered as has been herein before prescribed, in which case the governor and council are hereby authorised and required to cause commissions to be issued accordingly.

authorised and refuted be issued accordingly.

And be it enacted. That the governor and council are hereby authorised and directed to appoint immediately to each district as before laid off, one lieutenant colonel and two majors, whether the number of troops in said districts be now complete or not.

And be it enacted, That the governor and council are hereby authorised and directed, in case of a call of the general government, upon the state of Maryland, for her quota of cavalry, to appoint such general officers as the number of troops so such general onters as the number of troops so called out may entitle them to, agreeably to the rules and regulations in similar cases applied. And be it enacted, That the field officers and captains of cavairy shall meet in the city of Balti-more on the second Monday of March next in u-niform, and completely equipped, and they, or a niform, and completely equipped, and they, or a majority of them, when so met, may agree upon a system of cavalry tactics and trumpet soundings; and an uniform dress for the cavalry field-officers of this state, whether regimental or general, and the result of the meeting herein above mentioned, shail be forthwith transmitted to the governor of the state, signed by the officers present, or a majority of them, who shall thereupon make the same tublic by proclamation, and which determination of the said meeting, when published, shall become binding and obligatory upon the field offi-same rublic by proclamation, and which determination of the said meeting, when published, shall become binding and obligatory upon the field officers and captains, and subalterns of all troops concerned, to adopt within six months thereafter, under the penalties imposed for disobedience of orders by the act to which this is a supplement.

And be it enacted, That each lieutenant colonel is hereby authorized and empowered to call together the commissioned and non-commissioned officers within their respective districts, at least four times a year, for drill exercise, and each regiment shall meet at least once every fall, at such convenient time and place, as the lieutenant colonel may direct; and each squadron shall meet at least once every spring, and oftener if deemed necessary, within the county in which such squadron may belong, at such convenient time and place as the major or commanding officer of such squadron may direct; and each troop shall meet at least eight times a year, independent of the regimental and squadron meetings, at such time and place within his county, as the commanding officer shall direct. within his county, as the commanding officer shall direct.

And be it enacted, That the brigadier generals of infantry, may call out that portion of the cavalry which are organized within their respective brigade districts, to attend the brigade or regimental meetings of infantry, provided they are not taken out of the county where such troop or troops belong, without the consent thereo; and such meetings of cavalry are to be considered as a part of the

of the county where such troop or troops belong, without the consent thereof; and such meetings of cavalry are to be considered as a pair of the eight troop meetings before prescribed by this act. And be it enacted, That the horse used as troopments used by an officer, non-commissioned officer, or private, of the cavalry of this state, shall be free and exempt from taxation or execution.

And be it enacted, That all persons who have or may in future join the troops of cavalry already formed, or who may form themselves into new troops after the passage of this act, shall be authorised through the commanding officer of his district, to require of the governor and council, the loan of a sword and a pistol for each and every such person, and the governor and council are the present and the present and the governor and council are the present and th commanding officer of the troop giving bond with approved security to the state, for the safe keep ing and returning of the same when demanded by the state.

And be it enacted, That the fines for non-attendance, disobedience of orders, or unofficer-like con-duct, when on parade or in uniform, shall be the same against cavalry officers, as those prescribed for the infantry, in the act to which this is a sup-
